

Fleuroselect winner

Echinacea purpurea Prairie Splendor recently won a Fleuroselect Gold Medal. It is an excellent breeding of the increasingly popular perennial Echinacea. It is first year flowering and has a very uniform and well branched habit reaching a height of 60cm.

Prairie Splendor

According to S&G Flowers Prairie Splendor produces a much better plant in a pot than most other varieties of Echinacea.